- If the modification requested by the customer cannot be accepted by the campsite (no availability, no possibility, or 15-day period exceeded...), the customer must either carry out their stay under the initial booking conditions or cancel it in accordance with the cancellation terms. No postponement will be accepted for the following season
- Requests to extend the duration of stays will be dealt with subject to availability and in line with applicable prices at the time the modification is requested.
- Requests to reduce the duration of stays are deemed to be partial cancellations and will be subject to the terms and conditions which apply to cancellation and termination of stays.

3. Cancellation or unused nights due to administrative restrictions

- In the event of cancellation, interrupted stay or early departure for one of the following administrative restrictions:

b. If campers cancel their bookings having taken out cancellation insurance

- The cost of taking out the cancellation guarantee must be paid in full at the time of reservation and is non-refundable in all circumstances.

Article 5- YOUR STAY

1. Arrival

- Arrival days may vary depending on the Villages and the periods (please refer to the specific conditions of each Village).
- Rental accommodation: on the day of your arrival, you will be welcomed from 5 p.m. at the latest (please refer to the specific conditions of each Village).
- A security deposit may be required depending on the campsites.
- An official identity document for all participants in the stay may be requested upon arrival to comply with the applicable legal and regulatory requirements. Failure to present such document may result in refusal of access to the Village.

GENERAL CONDITIONS OF SALE

2. During your stay

- Only the persons expressly named in the booking contract are authorised to access the establishment and its facilities. Any person not appearing in the booking contract must obtain prior specific authorisation from the reception. Each registered guest is responsible for any disturbances or nuisances caused by persons staying with them or visiting them.
- The customer acknowledges having read the Village's internal rules, drawn up in accordance with Annex I to the Order of 17 February 2014, which are available for consultation at the campsite reception and/or on the Village's website, and undertakes to comply with them without reservation. Serious or repeated breaches of the internal rules may result in the immediate termination, without prior warning, of the accommodation contract and the immediate removal of the customers and/or all occupants of the accommodation, without any entitlement to reimbursement of the amounts paid. The same shall apply in the event of serious or repeated conduct by any participant in the stay that causes disruption or nuisance at the campsite and is detrimental to the campsite or other customers.
- It is the camper's responsibility to ensure that they have appropriate cover: the camper is responsible for the supervision of their personal belongings (bicycles, etc.). The Village declines all responsibility in the event of any incident falling within the camper's civil liability.
- The campsite shall not be held liable for property damage caused by risks inherent in an outdoor establishment, particularly damage to vehicles belonging to customers. Parking spaces allowing vehicles to be parked close to the accommodation are particularly exposed to this type of risk, despite the professional and regular pruning of trees. The customer confirms that they are aware of this risk and, accordingly, accepts it and undertakes to take all appropriate measures to protect against it, in particular by using protective covers. The campsite shall not be held liable for any physical harm or discomfort suffered by customers as a result of such natural events.
- The campsite is an outdoor establishment located in a natural environment. The occasional presence of insects and small wildlife, particularly in outdoor areas, is inherent in this type of stay and does not constitute a lack of conformity of the accommodation. Customers must comply with the rules and recommendations communicated to them, in particular by not leaving food or waste in the open air. Any abnormal presence inside an accommodation unit must be reported to reception so that our teams can intervene as quickly as possible.

3. Departure

- Departure days may vary depending on the Villages and the periods (please refer to the specific conditions of each Village)
- Rental accommodation: on the day of departure specified in your contract, the accommodation must be vacated before 10 a.m. The accommodation must be returned in a perfectly clean condition, and the inventory may be checked; any broken or damaged items will be at your expense, as will any necessary restoration of the premises.
- The deposit will be refunded at the end of the stay, after deduction of any sums retained, supported by invoices, for any damage noted during the departure inventory. The retention of the deposit shall not exclude additional compensation if the costs exceed its amount.
- If the accommodation has not been cleaned prior to your departure, a cleaning fee with a minimum amount of €95 including taxes will be charged.
- For any delayed departure, except where a "Late departure" option has been offered and subscribed to with the campsite, an additional day may be charged at the applicable nightly rate.
